

7. PREPARERS

7. PREPARERS

The following are the primary individuals who were involved in the preparation and review of the technical portions of the 2009 Final Supplemental Environmental Impact Statement:

CHA

Dale E. Gozalkowski, P.E., Project Manager. Nineteen years experience in highway design, BSCE, Clarkson University, 1990.

Dave Kahlbaugh, AICP, Senior Transportation Planner. Thirty-three years of experience in traffic engineering and transportation planning.

James Shields, Highway Engineer. Fourteen years of experience in highway design. BSCE, Roger Williams University, 1994.

Cory R. Lamb, P.E., Highway Engineer. Thirteen years of experience in highway design. Specialized training in Noise Modeling and Air Quality Analyses. BSCE, Clarkson University, 1997.

Eric V. Nicoletti, I.E., Environmental Engineer. Five years of experience in civil, environmental and ecological design and consulting. Specialized training in Modeling of Mobile Source Air Quality Impacts. BSEN, University of Florida, 2003.

William Orr, P.E., Senior Engineer. Twenty-one years of experience in environmental and geotechnical engineering. MSCE, Georgia Tech, 1987.

Scott Rosecrans, Environmental Scientist III. Eight years of environmental science and engineering. BS, SUNY College of Environmental Science and Forestry, 1999.

Stantec Consulting Services, Inc.

John T. Myers, III P.E., Project Manager. Twenty-four years of experience in civil engineering. Bachelor of Science in Civil and Environmental Engineering, Clarkson University, 1985.

Jeffrey L. Goller, Project Manager, Landscape Architect. Seventeen years of experience in landscape architecture. Bachelor of Science in Landscape Architecture, UMASS Amherst, 1991. Masters in Landscape Architecture, CU Denver, 1994.

FEDERAL HIGHWAY ADMINISTRATION

Kenneth R. Sikora, Jr., Environmental Program Manager. Twenty-three years of experience with the Federal Highway Administration. BSCE, University of Vermont.

CITY OF BURLINGTON

Carol Weston P.E., Municipal Project Manager. Eleven years of experience with the Burlington DPW. BSCE, University of Vermont, MSCE Tufts University.

VERMONT AGENCY OF TRANSPORTATION

Wayne Davis, Project Manager. Thirty-one years of experience with Vermont Agency of Transportation. Assoc. Degree, Paul Smith College, 1975.

Scott Newman, Historic Preservation Officer. Ten years of experience in private historic preservation consulting for government and individual clients, Nine years of experience as VTrans' Historic Preservation Officer interpreting and applying state and federal historic preservation regulations to transportation related projects. M.S. in Conservation of the Built Environment, University of Montreal.

Scott Gurley, VTrans Historic Preservation Specialist. Ten years experience reviewing transportation projects. University of Vermont, 1996, M.S. Historic Preservation.

WERNER ARCHAEOLOGICAL CONSULTING

Slobodanka U. Werner, Certified Archaeologist. Over twenty-five years of experience in archaeological research and cultural resource management. Belgrade University, 1990, BA Archaeology.

Michael R. Werner, Archaeologist. Over thirty-five years of experience in archaeological research and cultural resource management. Stanford University, 1981, Ph.D. Archaeology.